COMMUNITY NEWS | January-March 2013

EDGEWOOD VILLAGE PROPERTY MANAGER

Edgewood Village is proud to introduce its new Property Manager, Quatrina (Trina) Robertson. Trina has many years of experience in affordable housing and is looking forward to becoming a part of the Edgewood Village community! Trina can be reached by phone at 330-379-3535 or by email at QRobertson@akronhousing.org.

Message from Management: Please be mindful of your neighbors and keep noise down to a minimum and adhere to the no smoking policy. Thank you!

RESIDENT SERVICES PROGRAMS

Resident Services offers several programs for all residents to enjoy. Check out the bulletin board in the Marian T. Hall Community Building or look for mailings for more information. We can help with referrals for food, transportation, child care, etc. Share your email address so that we can send job leads information or come in and use the on-site computer lab to conduct your own job search, type a term paper for school, or update your resume. Contact Resident Services for more details at.

EDGEWOOD VILLAGE BUS

Edgewood Village has a 12 passenger bus with handicapped accessibility for residents' use for shopping/grocery trips. There is a flat fee charge of $13.00 per month which will be added to your rent statement for those who are interested in this service. Currently, the bus runs on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Contact Resident Services for more information.
